

HEBDEN BRIDGE PARADE HANDMADE

20 June 2009 @ 2pm

Open Workshops: 2-18 June
www.hebdenbridgeparade.org

HEADS and Thingumajig Theatre present

THE GLORIOUS GARDEN PARTY

Saturday 20th June 2009 at 2pm

The Hebden Bridge Handmade Parade is set to return to the town this summer even bigger and brighter than last year. Enter a rainbow world of giant insects and dancing plants parading to Calder Holmes Park and then join us for a picnic with free acoustic entertainment and local food on sale.

Open Workshops 2 – 18 June

Make your own costume, mask, banner or giant puppet with our professional artists. Adults, teenagers and families all welcome. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Entrance fee: £2 per person per workshop /
£7 per person for unlimited entry

Tuesday	2 June	4-6pm and 7-9pm
Thursday	4 June	4-6pm
Saturday	6 June	1-4pm
Sunday	7 June	1-4pm
Tuesday	9 June	4-6pm and 7-9pm
Thursday	11 June	4-6pm
Saturday	13 June	1-4pm
Sunday	14 June	1-4pm
Tuesday	16 June	4-6pm and 7-9pm
Thursday	18 June	4-6pm

Workshops and Classes Location:

Unit 5, Victoria Works
Victoria Road
Hebden Bridge
HX7 8LN

Parade Art Classes

This year, we will offer advanced skills classes for adults and teens to produce projects which they will perform on the day of the parade. Each class is four 2-hour sessions and costs £25. Visit our website for class descriptions and schedules.

Stilting with Andrew Kim
Giant Papier Mache Sculptures with Alison Duddle
Kinetic Sculptures: Build a Mechanical Bug! with Dave Young Giant Withies Sculptures with Kerith Odgen

For more information visit:

www.hebdenbridgeparade.org

email: info@hebdenbridgeparade.org phone: 01422 846060

Drawings: Kerith Odgen, Water Bearer: Alison Duddle, Photo: Nigel Hillier, Design: Andrew Kim

